DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 30, 2004 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 7, 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wan et al. (A Rapid and Simple Microfluorometric Phagocytosis Assay"; Journal of Immunological Methods; 162(1993): pp 1-7).

Wan teaches a microfluorometric method for phagocytosis using fluorescein conjugated E. coli particles and quenching extracellular fluorescence. The cells were harvested from a tissue culture flasks and dispensed into a 96-well tissue culture plate and incubated to allow cells to adhere to the bottom of the wells. The culture medium was aspirated and fluorescent E. coli particles suspended in Hanks' buffer was added.

The plates were further incubated for various time periods. Extracellular fluorescence was then quenched by adding trypan blue dye. (see page 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8, 23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 9-21, 24-32 allowed over the prior arts.
